New: non-stop flight Zurich-Orlando with Edelweiss Air

Exciting news from the leading Swiss leisure airline: Starting on 2 July until 10 September, 2011, Edelweiss Air will operate one weekly non-stop flight from Zurich to Orlando (Florida). The flights will be operated every Saturday with Edelweiss Air's Airbus A330-200.

The departure time from Zurich is on Saturday at 17h05. The arrival time in Orlando is 21h25. The return flight departs from Orlando at 23h15, arriving in Zurich on Sunday at 14h30 (all local times).

This popular holiday destination in Florida is the starting point for a wide variety of different tourist attractions and gorgeous beaches. Orlando is also particularly suitable for family vacations.

All Edelweiss Air flights are conducted in code share with SWISS. Therefore, these flights can also be combined with SWISS scheduled flights (e.g. Miami).

Bookings can be made through major tour operators, travel agents or via the web pages www.edelweissair.ch or www.swiss.com.
